Our internship program is six months long. You will be required to work on CMA projects 32 hours a week. These activities include, but are not limited to, toolmaking, workshop prep, occasional commission jobs, and restoration activities in the historic Blacksmith Shop. Interns will receive housing for the duration of their internship as well as have studio access on weekends and after operation hours. The internship position is a rigorous position, which requires long days and occasional nights during the Forging Focus, but provides invaluable professional development as you work alongside our talented instructors. There is no stipend or financial remuneration at this time for the internship program. Interns will assist in all workshops during their stay. They will also be allowed to take all week-long workshops, while assisting the instructors. Included in the intern's stay is our six-week long Forging Focus. You are applying for the CMA internship for the following dates: April 1st-September 31st 2020.
